

March 14, 2026

Students Participation in Infrastructure Seminar

On 10th March 2026, five students from B.Tech. Semester VI, Department of Civil and Infrastructure Engineering, FEST, attended a seminar titled "Reinventing Construction: Steel as the Engine of Modern Infrastructure," jointly organized by IITRAM, Ahmedabad and INSDAG, Kolkata. The seminar featured insightful sessions by industry professionals and academic experts, covering topics such as pre-engineered steel structures, fire and corrosion protection of structural steel, modular construction, and the future of steel in modern infrastructure. The visit provided students with valuable exposure to current industry practices and innovations in steel construction.

March 14, 2026

Student Upskilling Program: Finance for Everyone – Batch 1

The Centre for Continuing Education (CCE), Adani University, organized a Student Upskilling Program titled “Finance for Everyone – Batch 1” on 07th March 2026 at the university campus. The session was conducted by Dr. Riya Mehta, Assistant Professor in the Faculty of Management Sciences. The program aimed to build students' essential financial literacy by introducing key concepts in personal finance, smart money management, investment basics, and financial statement analysis. A total of 36 undergraduate and postgraduate students from engineering and management disciplines participated. The session offered practical insights and real-world financial knowledge, enabling students to make informed and responsible financial decisions.

March 14, 2026

Student Upskilling Program: Excel Statistical Toolkit – Batch 2

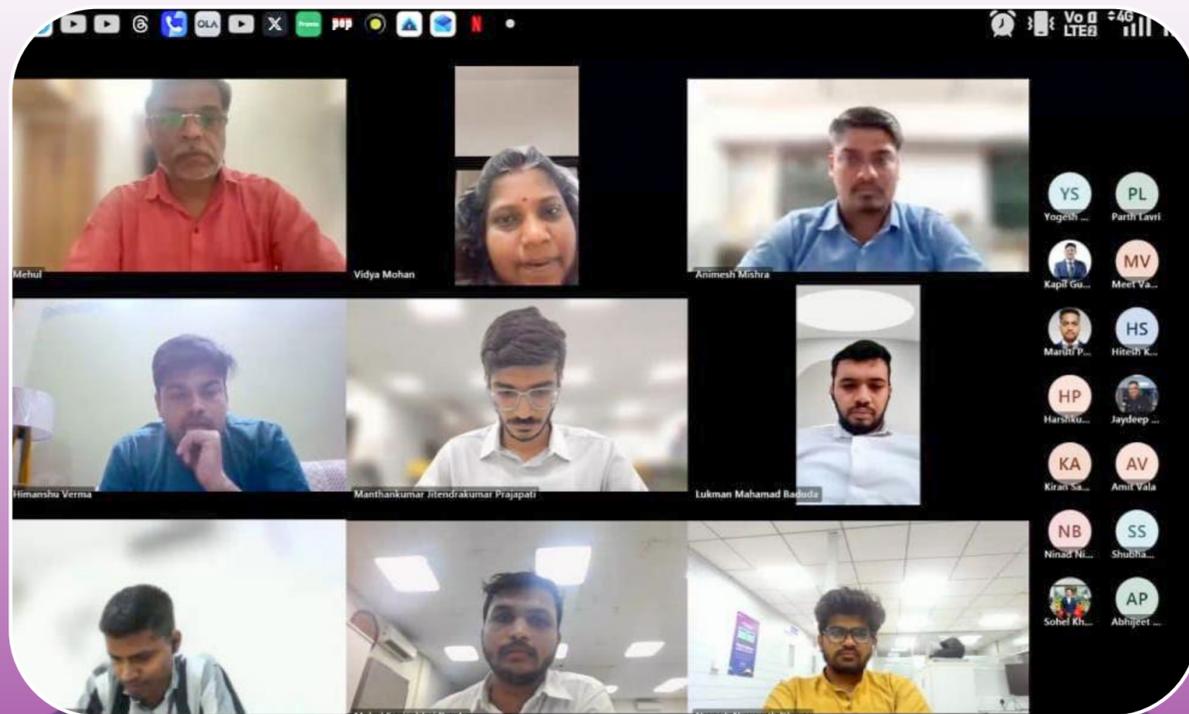

The Centre for Continuing Education (CCE), Adani University, organized the Student Upskilling Program “Excel Statistical Toolkit – Batch 2” on 07th March 2026 in classroom mode. Conducted by Dr. Karan Radia, Faculty of Management Sciences, the session focused on enhancing students’ Excel and statistical analysis skills through practical applications. Topics included Excel functions, descriptive statistics, probability distributions, and real-world data analysis. A total of 36 undergraduate and postgraduate students from engineering and management participated, including attendees from Ganpat University and Gujarat University, making the workshop an engaging platform for developing data-driven decision-making skills.

March 14, 2026

Technical Visit to BN Precast Manufacturing Factory

On 11th March 2026, students of M.Tech. Construction Engineering and Management visited the BN Precast Factory as part of the courses Lean Construction and Project Site Administration II. The visit was conducted under the guidance of Dr. Vishal H. Lad and Dr. Rohan Majumder, with support from Mr. Parth Patel, Head, BN Precast Pvt. Ltd. Students observed the precast concrete production process, including mould preparation, reinforcement placement, casting, curing, and quality control. The visit also provided insights into factory management, material handling, and production planning, highlighting the role of precast technology in improving construction efficiency and project timelines.

March 14, 2026

Expert Session on Ethical Use of Generative AI

On 6th March 2026, an expert session on “Ethical Use of Generative AI for Assignment Solving” was conducted for MBA ACM students at Adani University by Prof. Mehul Raval, Professor, Ahmedabad University. The session focused on responsible and ethical practices in using generative AI tools for academic work. Prof. Raval emphasized the importance of academic integrity, originality, and critical thinking, while also discussing proper referencing and the need to avoid plagiarism. He encouraged students to treat AI as a supportive learning tool rather than blindly rely on it.

March 14, 2026

Pi Day Celebration at Adani University

Faculty of Sciences, Adani University celebrated Pi Day on 12th March 2026, with a vibrant series of activities highlighting both creativity and mathematical curiosity. The event featured Pi Palette and a Meme Exhibition, where students expressed mathematical ideas through art and humor. Participants also engaged in Pi Quest, a puzzle-based challenge, and Pi-Thon, a competition testing their ability to recall digits of π . The celebration concluded with a Human Pi Formation Photoshoot, bringing students together as a memorable tribute to the iconic mathematical constant and fostering enthusiasm for mathematics beyond the classroom.

March 14, 2026

International Women's Day Celebration at Adani University

Adani University marked International Women's Day 2026 with a special program themed "Give to Gain," bringing together over 250 students, faculty, and staff on 9th March 2026. The celebration featured an engaging interaction with Dr. Priti G. Adani, President of Adani University and Chairperson of the Adani Foundation, who spoke about leadership, mentorship, and empowering women to lead with purpose. A panel discussion with Ms. Paridhi Adani, Dr. Aabha Chabra, Ms. Gopi Trivedi, Prof. Githa Heggde, and Dr. Tulsi Mahadevia highlighted personal and professional journeys, sharing inspiring reflections on resilience, leadership, and giving back in the spirit of "Give to Gain."

March 14, 2026

Celebrating International Women's Day: Maintaining Women's Health and Hygiene

On 9th March 2026, a special session was conducted by Dr Nita Thakre, Senior Consultant Gynecologist and Obstetrician at KD Hospital, to mark International Women's Day. The talk focused on creating awareness about women's health and hygiene, addressing common misconceptions, and explaining essential practices for maintaining reproductive health. Dr. Thakre discussed topics such as infection prevention, hygiene practices, and the importance of appropriate clothing for women's health. The session concluded with an engaging Q&A, during which participants received further guidance and practical insights into women's well-being.